MOVEMENT IN INTEREST OF BLIND LAUNCHED AT MEETING IN LIBRARY

A most enthusiastic meeting was held yesterday under the leadership of Mrs. Andrew S. Rowan of Fort Douglas for the formation of an auxiliary society to aid the Association of the Blind. The auxiliary society will operate in connection with the Salt Lake public library, and its main object will be to further all lines of work for the blind. Its membership will consist of seeing and sightless alike, the former of course, to be of whatever service possible for the sightless.

Mrs. Rowan opened the meeting at the library with a brief address setting forth the purposes of the organization and telling of some of the good results accomplished in other cities by such association. She held that the keen perception, the clear understanding and the general sensitiveness of the blind are a side which the seeing people should know and appreciate, and that for the purpose of a better understanding of one another their association should be more general.

No organization was perfected, although a general expression of opinion

BEET SEASON IS NEAR.

Three Factories of Amalgamated Company to Start on 14th.

From the general office of the Amalgamated Sugar company in this city it was learned yesterday afternoon that instructions would be given to the beet farmers in this district, as well as in Cache valley, to begin digging beets within a week for the three sugar factories.

The digging of beets for the Ogden factory will begin on Sept. 12, and the factory will begin the campaign on the 14th. The digging of beets for the Logan factory will begin on the 14th and for the Lewiston factory will begin on the 15th.

The company anticipates a long run this year, as the crops have been unusually heavy in all the districts. The reports on the tests of the beets, which were recently made were the most satisfactory of any that has been made for the company in a number of years.

A communication was received from Superintendent Frank R. Driggs of Ogden of the state school for the deaf and blind stating that whatever aid he could render in the way of books of raised letters or kindred helps he would be glad to give.

Following this meeting a meeting of the board of directors of the Western Association of the Blind, which association was formed last spring, was held and a brief address distributed to all present asking the names and addresses of all blind people that they may be made members of the association. The first annual meeting will be held here early in October, for which notice will be given.

TWENTY THOUSAND PERSONS WITNESS BUFFALO BILL'S WILD WEST SHOW

Many clothes lines will disappear from the back yards of the city today and reappear as unerring lassoes. Young Chief Feather Duster and his band of youthful warriors will trap the unwary pale face and every available four-legged animal will be utilized for the practice of equestrian feats by the youth of the city. The cause of the sudden emulation of the cowboy by the kids of Salt Lake may readily be traced. Buffalo Bill's Wild West was witnessed by 20,000 people yesterday, and a good portion of the two big audiences were children.

The performance, has seldom been viewed by a more discriminating audience. Many of those who witnessed the show themselves had themselves passed through scenes and incidents closely resembling those portrayed in the arena. Many of the audience have sent and received mail by pony express. Not a few have taken part in brush wars with the Indians and the realistic and historical features of the performance were highly appreciated.

The real feature of the show was the game of football on horseback. An enormous ball six feet in diameter was rolled into the arena and two teams of mounted men endeavored to force the ball between the goal posts. The game was productive of some splendid horse-manship, and at the evening performance an enormous crowd of spectators on their chests and seemed to enter into the spirit of the game with as much enthusiasm as their riders. One horse was killed by a rider on top of the ball and a complete somersault, falling heavily.

Joe Bailey, the wonderful trained horse, is one of the star members of the Buffalo Bill company. The horse displays wonderful intelligence and was handled by his rider in a remarkable way. Joe danced everything from a cakewalk to the hoochie kootchie, and went through a series of stunts not duplicated by any other horse in the world.

Devlin's Zouaves perform a lightning drill without other commands than those given by a whistle, and perform the most difficult evolutions in a limited space.

The performance, however, showed a decided falling off in excellence when compared with the last show given by Buffalo Bill in Salt Lake. There were few new features, and the performance seemed to be cut short and slighted in a number of places.

Buffalo Bill himself conducted the immigrant train through the tortuous paths of the arena, and with his band of cowboys and soldiers put to flight the band of yelling redskins with much explosion of blank cartridges. The Dearwood stage was attacked by the red men and was also rescued in a brief and enthusiastic manner by the same noble frontiersmen. The battle of Summit Springs introduced scenes of an Indian village and the war dances of the Sioux and Cheyennes. As a finale to the attack on the village Buffalo Bill slaughtered Tall Bull in realistic style amid a blaze of red fire.

The exhibition of rough riding by cowboys, Cossacks and United States cavalrymen was one of the features of the show, as was the shooting of Johnny Baker.

The car service to the fair grounds, where the show was held, was utterly inadequate. At the evening performance the entire string of cars, crowded to the doors, was stalled for nearly twenty minutes through trouble with the power wires.

DENVER LAWYER THE FAVORITE

Charles J. Hughes Endorsed by Colorado Democrats for Senator.

Pueblo, Colo., Sept. 9.—It was nearly 11 o'clock today when the Democratic state convention reassembled. Two reports on the Denver contest were presented from the committee on credentials. The majority favored seating the Speer-Hughes delegation. The minority report, signed by the representatives of thirteen counties, recommended that both Denver delegations be seated and each delegate be given half a vote, and that a committee of which Mayor Robert W. Speer shall be a member, be appointed to organize the Denver Democracy, and in case of its failure to agree upon a plan that Chief Justice Robert W. Steele be empowered to settle the differences in Denver.

Former Governor Charles S. Thomas and United States Senator Henry M. Teller spoke in favor of the majority report. Senator Teller said the test of party regularity was in obeying the decisions of the party conventions, and it was the duty of every Democrat to support the regular nominees. This call at 1:55 the convention took a recess until 2:30 without fixing a time for the vote on the report of the credentials committee.

On reconvening this afternoon the convention continued discussion of the reports from the credentials committee. At 5 o'clock a vote was taken on a motion to adopt the minority report. It was lost, 38 to 454. The majority report was then adopted by viva voce vote. Adjournment was then until 8 o'clock tonight.

At the evening session there was another hot discussion over the order of business. Three reports came from the committee, the majority recommending that the first business transacted be that of endorsing a candidate for United States senator. Another report placed this action further down the list, and still another recommended that no choice be made by the convention. The majority report was adopted, and Charles J. Hughes of Denver, a leading attorney, was then given the endorsement by acclamation. The report of the committee on resolutions was adopted, and the convention adjourned until tomorrow.

MASONS HOLD BANQUET.

Park City, Sept. 9.—The new Masonic hall is now completed and last night, in the way of a housewarming, a dance program and banquet were had. The banquet room was beautifully decorated with flags and the national colors and two large tables were spread with all the luxuries of the market. Eugene Greene of the Elks' club presided at the banquet. The affair was given by Utaiah Lodge No. 7, F. & A. M., and all Masons and their families and friends were invited. More than 300 people were present.

The following short program was rendered: Miss Lucile Taft, piano solo; Charles T. Prisk, vocal solo; Mrs. Julius Frankel, recitation, and Dr. Verne Wight, vocal solo.

Following the program the banquet was served, and Dr. C. M. Wilson, acting as toastmaster. The following persons responded to toasts: Mrs. John Diem, Eastern Star; Rod McDonald, "The Chapter," and E. W. Sherman, "The Commandery."

Following the banquet, dancing was indulged in until a late hour, when all turned to their homes, after an evening's enjoyment that will long be remembered by all present.

The funeral of the late Jerry Shea was held this afternoon from the Catholic church, Rev. Father Galligan officiating. Interment was in Glenwood cemetery.

BOY MEETS INSTANT DEATH

Wheel of Traction Engine Passes Over His Head, Crushing His Skull Frantically.

Ephraim, Sept. 8.—The 10-year-old son of Mrs. Libby Peterson was instantly killed at Gunnison yesterday by being run over by a steam engine belonging to the Gunnison Threshing company. The engine was pulling up Main street when the little fellow saw it. John Baxter, an uncle of the child, was on the engine, and when he saw Gilmore approaching he slackened, but before he could stop the engine the large wheel passed over the child's head and completely smashed it. He died instantly.

The heartbroken mother has the sympathy of the whole community. Three years ago the father was killed near Scofield on the D. & R. G. railway while shipping sheep east.

The funeral will be held at Gunnison tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

American Federation Man Makes Speech Before Trade Union Congress.

Nottingham, Sept. 9.—The Trade Union congress today passed a resolution condemning the British workmen who engaged themselves as strike breakers in Germany and the colonies and asking parliament to enact a measure under which the organizers of strike-breaking movements, as well as the men themselves, could be prosecuted. The congress voted down a motion for amalgamation with the labor party, which is controlled by the Socialists.

Two fraternal delegates from the American Federation of Labor, who are watching the proceedings, were received by the congress. The American delegates are J. E. Creamer and Andrew Faruseth, and each made an address. Mr. Creamer said that the position of the trade unions in America was prejudiced through the operations of court-made laws. For years they had pleaded with congress for just laws, but they had got nothing, being told the only way to obtain redress was to go into politics. This the trade unionists of America had finally done.

"We don't think we should vote the Republican ticket," Mr. Creamer declared, "and we are not going to. The only thing left for us is to fight one party with the other, and we are going to try that plan this year. If it does not succeed we shall do something else the next time."

Mr. Faruseth said that the working-man should, by united action, be in a position to stop the machinery of production and make it useless to the owner until such time as the owners recognize the rights of the workers. The unionists in America, he said, were proud to regard the British unionists as their teachers in almost everything.

PROUD OF HIS WORK.

Former United States Senator Leader of Southern Mob.

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 9.—A special from Oxford, Miss., quotes former United States Senator W. V. Sullivan as follows, with reference to the lynching last night: "I led the mob which lynched Neale Patton and I'm proud of it. I directed every movement of the mob, and I did everything I could to see that he was lynched."

"Cut a white woman's throat and a negro."

"I would not mind standing the consequences any time for lynching a man for cutting a white woman's throat. I will lead a mob in such a case any time."

CHOLERA CASE IN ST. PETERSBURG

Asiatic Scourge Spreading and the Authorities Preparing for the Worst.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 9.—The fact that Asiatic cholera exists in St. Petersburg has been established beyond doubt. The body of the woman who died in this city yesterday supposedly from this disease has been examined and the bacilli of cholera found.

The present weather conditions are favorable to the spread of the disease and the authorities are making preparations for an increase in the number of cases. The Asiatic cholera has spread far eastward in Siberia, and Irkutsk has now been officially included in the cholera zone. The plague appears to have reached its climax in the Volga region. Fifteen cases of cholera are officially reported in this city.
